

Tim Kavaklian-D'Annecy

(352) 226-3478
tdannecy@gmail.com
<http://tdannecy.me>
Chapel Hill, NC 27516

TKD

Summary

Graduate student at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill School of Information and Library Science, interested in pursuing a career in special libraries – specifically in academic publications and institutional resource acquisitions.

Educational Background

University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill

Master of Science - Library and Information Science

University of Florida

Master of Arts – Women's Studies and Gender Research – May 2015

Florida NOW Archive - Trysh Travis (thesis chair)

Thesis project involved creating an online platform to serve as a digital companion to a collection of documents from chapters of Florida National Organization for Women from 1973 to the early 2000s (Available at FLNOWarchive.org). Project overview included a detailed explanation of the research process, including an synthesis of humanities computing best practices and feminist research methodology. Released the project to the Gainesville community in March 2015 and successfully defended methodological approach and application to colleagues and public in April 2015.

Accomplishments and Awards

- ❑ Presented thesis at the annual 2015 Florida NOW State Conference.
- ❑ Panelist at the 2014 National Women's Studies Association Conference, Life in the Public Sphere: How the Public/Private Dichotomy Leaves the Homeless in the Cold.
- ❑ Recipient of the Vada Allen Yeomans Fellowship from 2013-2015.

University of Florida

Bachelor of Arts – Political Science, Women's Studies minor – May 2013

Teaching Experience

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Florida

Gainesville, FL – January 2014 - May 2015

Worked for a professor of a large course discussing health disparities through a multi-faceted and intersectional approach accounting for race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, disability, and other marginalized groups. This was a popular undergraduate course for pre-med and other pre-professional students and had an average of 75 students registered for the course each semester.

Training Specialist, University of Florida Academic Technology

Gainesville, FL – September 2012 - August 2015

Work Experience and Volunteering

Student Reference Librarian, Ipas

Chapel Hill, NC - September 2015

Provided resource retrieval and citation assistance, among other services, to a global research and policy team. Ipas is an international nongovernmental organization working to train practitioners and advise policymakers in medically and culturally appropriate abortion methods.

Volunteer, Carolina Abortion Fund

Raleigh, NC - September 2015

Volunteer, Rubicon Research Repository

Chapel Hill, NC - August 2015

Intern, Marston Science Library, University of Florida

Gainesville, FL – January 2015 - May 2015

Accomplishments and Responsibilities

- ❑ Researched and compiled bibliographic records via Endnote, Worldcat, and Web of Science for Project Ceres, a partnership with the United States Agriculture Information Network. Publication pending.
- ❑ Accepted and optimized 3d print files created by students, submitted daily jobs on three Makerbot Replicators, and troubleshooted issues if needed.
- ❑ Completed two LibGuides to assist patrons and students on Mediawiki research collaboration and server setup.

Editorial Board Member, University of Florida Journal of Undergraduate Research

Gainesville, FL – April 2014 - May 2015

Volunteer, Samuel Proctor Oral History Program, University of Florida

Gainesville, FL – August 2014 - December 2014

Legal Research Intern, Southern Legal Counsel

Gainesville, FL – January 2014 - May 2014

- ❑ Practiced case briefing and basic legal writing. Main areas of focus included discrimination against transgender and homeless persons, judicial bypass for minors, and police brutality.
- ❑ Published two articles in the Florida Public Interest Journal, Vol. 3:2, Spring 2014: Landmark Pottinger Agreement Amended and John Doe v. Regional Sch. Unit 26 Maine Supreme Court Issues Landmark Ruling on Gender Dysphoria.

President, UF Vox: Voices for Planned Parenthood

Gainesville, FL – August 2009 - May 2013

Elected as Secretary, Vice-President, and President while involved. As President, responsibilities included planning and executing all group events including Sex on the Lawn, Pride Week: Paint Your Orgasm, and Get Yourself Tested. Trained to administer OraSure HIV tests. Attended Mississippi Activist workshop in Summer 2011 to increase effective media interaction and expand the volunteer base of Pro-Choice supporters within the North Florida region. Attended annual DC and Florida campus organizing conferences from 2010-2013. Organized and attended Florida legislative lobby sessions and participated in the Youth Policy & Organizing Conference Lobby Days in 2010-2013. Trained to be a community Peer Educator in 2013 for age appropriate, medically accurate college and high school sex education for middle school and high school students.

Intern - North Florida Justice Fund, Planned Parenthood of North Florida
Medical Receptionist - Planned Parenthood of North Florida

Gainesville, FL – August 2012 - August 2014

Hired as an intern and was promoted to medical receptionist. Also worked with a fund to expand access to women who rely on government assistance and are seeking to terminate a pregnancy.

Accomplishments and Responsibilities

- ❑ Restructured internal fund repayment process.
- ❑ Spoke with women via phone and screened their need for financial assistance.
- ❑ Directly corresponded with health clinics, funding networks, and patients.
- ❑ Compiled medical and financial data for biannual donor reports and monthly audits.
- ❑ Upheld both positions under direct supervision and met time-sensitive deadlines.

Poll Worker, Alachua County Supervisor of Elections
Alachua County, FL – August 2009 - August 2015

Personal Skills

- ❑ Proficient with Adobe Creative Cloud (particularly Adobe Acrobat), Google Apps, Amazon Web Services, and Microsoft Office.
- ❑ Competent with Endnote, WorldCat, EBSCO Onesearch, and Web of Science.
- ❑ Motivated by setting tasks and maintaining a high level of personal organization.
- ❑ Skilled in teaching lengthy lesson plans to medium and large classes.
- ❑ Experienced in campus organizing and advocacy events.

Additional References

Kirsten Clanton, JD - Internship Supervisor, Attorney
Southern Legal Counsel

(352) 271-8890 <kirsten.clanton@southernlegal.org>

Sara Gonzalez, PhD, MLIS - Internship Supervisor, Assistant Librarian
Marston Science Library - University of Florida

(352) 273-2889 <saragonz@ufl.edu>

Laura Guyer, PhD, RD - Professor of Health Disparities course
Center for Women's Studies and Gender Research - University of Florida

(352) 392-3365 <lkgyer@ufl.edu>

Laurie Taylor, PhD - Independent Study Supervisor, Library Administrator
George A. Smathers Libraries - University of Florida

(352) 273-2902 <laurien@ufl.edu>

Trysh Travis, PhD - Thesis Committee Chair, Associate Director
Center for Women's Studies and Gender Research - University of Florida

(352) 392-3365 <ttravis@ufl.edu>

Gaia Zori, MPH - Internship Supervisor, Director of Education
North Florida Justice Fund - Planned Parenthood of North Florida

(352) 376-9000 <gaia.zori@ppnfl.org>

Tim Kavaklian-D'Annecy

(352) 226-3478
 tdannecy@gmail.com
<http://tdannecy.me>
 Chapel Hill, NC 27516